The Hunter Writers Centre was established in 1995 and incorporated in 1998. We offer many services to local writers including:

- A Resource Centre for all writers' groups in the Hunter to utilise
- A reference library to help you develop your work
- Writing workshops in creative writing, publishing and multimedia
- Networking events for you to meet other writers
- Job opportunities for writers and share experiences
- A membership card which can be used for discounts at specified local businesses
- A regular newsletter, The Hunter Writer, with news about local writing events, HWC activities, competitions etc
- Computer and photocopier facilities
